

Plant Information

Common Name: Shooting Star
Scientific Name: Dodecatheon meadia 'Aphrodite'
Plant Type: Perennials

Physical Characteristics

Height/Spread: 30-45 cm tall, 15-30 cm wide
Growth Rate: Moderate
Flower Color(s): Pink
Foliage Color(s): Green
Bloom Time: Spring

Plant Description

Dodecatheon meadia 'Aphrodite', commonly known as Shooting Star, is a delightful perennial with pink blossoms that bloom in the spring. This plant thrives in partial shade and moderate watering, making it a perfect addition to border gardens or woodland landscapes. Its unique flowers attract butterflies, adding a touch of whimsy to any outdoor space. With a low maintenance level and resistance to most pests and diseases, Dodecatheon meadia 'Aphrodite' is an excellent choice for gardeners looking to add a pop of color and charm to their yard.

Optimal Growing Requirements

Sun: Part Shade

Soil: Loamy

Water: Moderate Watering

Hardiness Zone(s): Zone 3-5

Maintenance & Care

Maintenance Level: Low
Potential Pests & Diseases: Slugs, snails

Additional Information

Special Features: Attracts butterflies
Common Uses: Border plant, woodland garden

Notes

